No ring.

Although the colt ring at the fair yesterday afternoon brought out six high class entries, considerable disappointment was expressed over the fact that the prize show colt of W. E. Speakes was not one of the contestants for the premium. The colt has carried off two blue ties at the show this week, and it was deemed advisable by the owners to withhold her from the ring yesterday as she is being prepared for the show in this class at the State Fair in Louisville next Thursday. The colt, Mildred King, is by the famous Bourbon King out of Goldie Mae by Bourbon Chief, Jr., second dam by Pat Washington. Already she has taken premiums to the value of over $500 at the fairs this season, being first in the rings at Lexington, Georgetown, Frankfort and Paris and is yet undefeated.

Michael's Band continues to please the crowds at the fair with their excellent selections. Following is the musical program for today:

March—Nibelungen.
Intermezzo—Flower Girl.
Waltz—Adlyn.
Selection—Faust.
Some Rag—That Rag.
Medley—Von Tilzer.
Song and Dance—O. B. Joyful.
March—Hurrah Boys.
March—King Overall.
Characteristics—Southern Ideal.
Waltz—Spring Maid.
Medley—Bennick's 9.
Vocal Solo—Miss Wilmina Hamman.
Romance—In Georgia.
Selection—Il Trovatore.
Medley—1863.
Vocal Solo—Miss Wilmina Hamman.
Finale—Southern Mixture.

Miss Wilmina Hamman, soloist at the fair this week continues to delight her hearers. Yesterday Miss Hamman rendered several beautiful selections to the delight of all who heard her, each number being greeted with hearty rounds of applause. This afternoon Miss Hamman will sing by special request the "Rosary."

Fresh Oysters.

"The Night Rider" a Good Show.

Although only a small crowd greeted the performance of "The Night Rider" at the Grand Opera House last night, the attraction was one of the highest class and delighted the few who were present.

The story depicted the conditions existing in the State of Kentucky during the reign of terror resulting from the complications arising among the tobacco growers some years ago. Although the dramatist drew largely on his imagination to lay the plot around which the story was woven, it gives a clear idea in narrow detail of the underhanded methods employed to accomplish the purpose of the night riders.

The company was well balanced, each individual member being strong in their line of business and their work left no room for adverse criticism.

Deserts O'Rear.

Declaring that he cannot stand for the Demagogue of the Republican candidate, Judge Luther C. Willis, of Shelbyville, one of the most influential Republicans of the Eighth District, declares that under no circumstances will he support Judge E. C. O'Rear, Republican candidate for Governor. Judge Willis' action will have a decided influence on the result in Shelby and other counties of the Eighth District.

Open Day and Night.

Eat during the Fair with Kid Stout, Oysters, fish, chicken, steaks, etc. Open day and night.

No Effort to Locate Bidwell.

Col. E. F. Clay, Chairman of the Kentucky Racing Commission, in speaking of the case of W. E. Bidwell, the missing secretary of the Commission, stated that, while the body had not discussed the plan, it was probable that the secretary would be prosecuted in case he was arrested. Col. Clay further stated that no effort would be made to locate Bidwell. Col. Milton Young, vice chairman of the Commission, expressed the opinion that there would be no prosecution of Bidwell in case he was found.
